DR. SCOTT HIE EQUINE CHIROPRACTIC

Dr R Scott Hie graduated from Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College in 1996, being accepted into the College after completing two years of undergraduate study in Animal Science at the University of Guelph. He has maintained a private human practice in Toronto since his graduation. In addition he completed the Canadian Animal Chiropractic Certification Program and continues to instruct at the program. He is also a member of the American Veterinary Chiropractic Association.

He has a longstanding passion for horses which has lead to his involvement in many different disciplines, including harness racing, thoroughbred racing, polo, barrel racing, endurance, reining, 3 day eventing, jumpers, and hunters. When he is not practicing he enjoys travelling, his motorcycle, many sports and time on his family's farm.
