SHARON MCMASTER

Sharon McMaster, BSc(Hons), MLT, EMT will attend the Can Am Equine Emporium for 2011. Currently teaching for the University of Guelph Performance Horse Handler program, Sharon also offers popular weekend clinics for horse owners interested learning to massage and stretch their own horses. Sharon's clinics will be daily and will be FREE with the admission to the 2011 Can Am.

Sharon began working with horses at a very early age. It was her work with horses on lay-up from the racetrack that led her into the field of equine massage therapy. Sharon graduated from the 2 year diploma program at the D'AL School of Equine Massage Therapy in 2000 and has spent the last 10 years working with horses from all disciplines. Sharon continued on to achieve an Honours Degree in Biology as well as an Advanced diploma in Medical Laboratory Science. Sharon's enthusiasm for horses is matched only by her love of teaching. From weekend clinics to classroom sessions for the University of Guelph, Sharon keeps her students active and engaged in learning. By request, Sharon is currently developing a series of anatomy clinics for horse owners.
